

EDITORIAL NOTE

The idea for this Journal has come from the graduate students at the Institute of Social Anthropology in Oxford. Papers given at graduate seminars and ideas arising from work for diplomas and higher degrees very often merit wider circulation and discussion without necessarily being ready for formal publication in professional journals. There obviously exists a need in social anthropology for serious critical and theoretical discussion; JASO sees this as its main purpose. The Oxford University Anthropological Society established a Journal Sub-committee to organise the venture.

This tenth issue begins the fourth year of the Journal. Our publication now has an international circulation, and we should like to express our thanks to those who have assisted in its production and those who have given us encouragement in our enterprise.

FORMAT

We shall produce one issue per term (three per year). Articles are welcome from students of anthropology and from people in other disciplines. Comments will also be welcome. For the present, it is preferred that the main emphasis should be on analytical discussion rather than on description or ethnography. Papers should be as short as is necessary to get the point over. As a general rule, they should not exceed 5,000 words. For future issues, papers should be submitted following the conventions for citations, notes and references used in the A.S.A. monographs. Communications should be addressed to the Journal Editors, Institute of Social Anthropology, 51 Banbury Road, Oxford.

BACK ISSUES

We have a stock of back issues still unsold. Single issues are available at 30p. in the U.K. and $1 abroad. Complete volumes (I (1970), II (1971) and III (1972) are each available at the following rates: U.K. - 75p. to individuals, £1 to institutions; abroad $2.50 to individuals, $3 to institutions. The subscription for Vol. IV (1973) is the same. (All prices cover postage). Cheques should be made out to the Journal of the Anthropological Society of Oxford, and sent to the Journal Editors at 51 Banbury Road.
